

Prayer beads-making experience at Entsuin Temple

-Have a quiet moment with a seasonal view of the garden-

- Try making your own prayer beads in a famous garden in Matsushima, one of Japan’s three most scenic spots.
- Prayer beads are said to bestow benefits simply by holding them, eliminate misfortune and bring peace of mind.
- It will be a great opportunity to reflect on yourself in a special place away from busy days, while enjoying the view of the beautiful garden!
- Special menu for visitors!
The chief priest will guide you to the Sankeiden, an important national cultural property; the Daihitei, a cultural property designated by Matsushima Town; and the beautiful garden.
- Meals
You can dine at Ungai, a Date vegetarian kaiseki restaurant located on the premises of the Entsuin Temple with a view of the garden.
